

ABOUT REIGN

REIGN STREITER

A native New Yorker, Reign Streiter fell in love with the Southern charms of Athens as a University of Georgia student back in the 1980's. After his wife received her PhD from UGA, the pair decided the Classic City was the perfect place to raise their son and two daughters. During his 10-year career as a high school English teacher, Reign's signature hard work and dedication helped his student achieve success. Outside the classroom, he honed his teambuilding talents coaching football, baseball and basketball.

Success has not been an accident for Reign, on or off the field. When he decided to change careers and pursue his passion for real estate, he understood that he would need to invest his own money in order to be successful. Now he knows that investing in an aggressive ad campaign drives buyers to his door—and gets your house sold. That is why Reign's image and brand name appear in just about every piece of print, outdoor and social media in Athens. By fully employing his team members, Reign ensures transactions run smoothly from start to finish.

Reign is driven and committed to leading the number one real estate team in the Athens area. The results speak for themselves. You deserve to work with someone who understands how to market extensively, negotiate effectively and keep more of your money in your pocket.
